To whom it may concern:

Cambridge Mobile Telematics hereby requests a Permissive Change Class II of the radio equipment certification for the product Drivewell Tag Premium, certification number, FCC ID: 2AFGD-DWTAGV22. This product differs from the originally approved product in the following manner:

Installed in the specific host evaluated in this filing

I do attest that the Field strength and/or RF Output readings remained the same or are lower than the originally approved product and that they did not increase therefore qualifying this product for this application type.

Sincerely,

Lewis Girod
